DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' arguments, filed 07/29/2008, have been fully considered. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

Per Applicants request, Examiner notes that claims 26-33 were withdrawn as being directed to non-elected species, not due to the withdrawal of the non-elected invention of Group I.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 20, 22, and 23 were rejected and amended claim 24 is now rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fernidandy et al (PTO-892 dated 11/02/2007, item U).

This rejection is maintained.

Applicants assert they amended around ischemic heart injury and that the various teaching of the reference are different than the instant claims.

In response, Examiner points out that amended claim 20 still includes the treatment of ischemic heart disease. Therefore, the treatment as discussed in the prior application still anticipates the instant claims where ischemic heart injury can be construed as an ischemic heart disease.

Further, it is noted that the method of treatment of claims 20 and 22-24 simply requires the administration of TPEN for the conditions instantly claimed in claim 20, which appear to be pathological conditions influenced by the action of MMP. Where the limitations of instant claim 20 are met, it would appear that the mechanisms of claims 22-24 reasonably expected to be inherent. The discovery of a new mechanism does not overcome the anticipation rejection for the method of treatment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 20, 22, and 23 were rejected and amended claim 24 is now rejected are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fernandez-Pol et al. (US

Art Unit: 1612

Pregrant Publication 2003/0225155, now US 6803379, filed 6/4/2002, published 12/4/2003).

Applicants assert Fernandez-Pol et al teaches away from the instant claims. Examiner again notes that the method of treatment of claims 20 and 22-24 simply requires the administration of TPEN for the conditions instantly claimed in claim 20, which appear to be pathological conditions influenced by the action of MMP. Where the limitations of instant claim 20 are met, it would appear that the mechanisms of claims 22-24 reasonably expected to be inherent. Even if the teaching of the prior art does not appear to be similar to the present application; the discovery of a new mechanism does not overcome the anticipation rejection for the method of treatment where the same drug is administered for the same disease.

Conclusion

No claims allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection for claim 24 presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
